The Three Pillars of Self-Governance

In alignment with the Teach, Train, Equip, Activate, and Release (TTEAR) framework, I hereby commit to the following architectural adjustments in my personal lifestyle for the next 90 days:

Pillar 1: Spiritual Architecture (The Hidden Life)

To guard against the erosion of character by public platform, I commit to establishing a consistent, uninterrupted devotional altar.

- Daily Devotional Target: I will dedicate a minimum of _____ minutes daily to systemic biblical study and prayer.
- The Sanctuary Routine: My specific designated time and place for this daily altar will be:

- Time: _____ am/pm
- Place: _____

Pillar 2: Marketplace & Time Stewardship (The Battle with Self-Life)

To dismantle consumer-driven habits and build professional, ethical integrity in my sphere, I commit to intentional digital and physical boundary management.

- Digital Fasting: I will restrict non-essential screen time and social media usage to a maximum of _____ minutes/hours per day to protect my mental and spiritual focus.
- Elimination of Self-Interest: I recognise that the following three areas of self-interest currently compete with my Kingdom alignment:
 - 1.
 - 2.
 - 3.

Pillar 3: Tactical Field Execution (The 50/50 Mandate)

I acknowledge that classroom theory without field deployment creates stagnation.

- Field Commitment: I commit to spending a minimum of 3 hours per week physically deployed in my local community or marketplace, conducting territorial mapping, compassion evangelism, or direct discipleship as outlined by the GSOM curriculum.

The Peer Accountability Shield

I recognise that isolation is the enemy of longevity. I have established a virtual triad with the following two peers from my cohort for mutual vetting, encouragement, and course correction:

1. Peer 1
 Name: _____ Email: _____
2. Peer 2
 Name: _____ Email: _____

Our weekly, mid-week digital checkpoint is scheduled for every [Day of the Week] at [Time, GMT].

Solemn Ratification

By signing below, I affirm that this covenant is not a legalistic box to check, but a conscious, strategic decision to align my lifestyle with the government of the Kingdom. I understand that my consistency in these disciplines directly impacts my authorisation to graduate and be released into the global field network.
